TO

Miss Alice Runyan

Gipsy Eyes.

MUSIC BY

R. Frank Cardella.

WORDS BY

Nelson Cotton.

SAINT LOUIS.

Published by R. Frank Cardella.

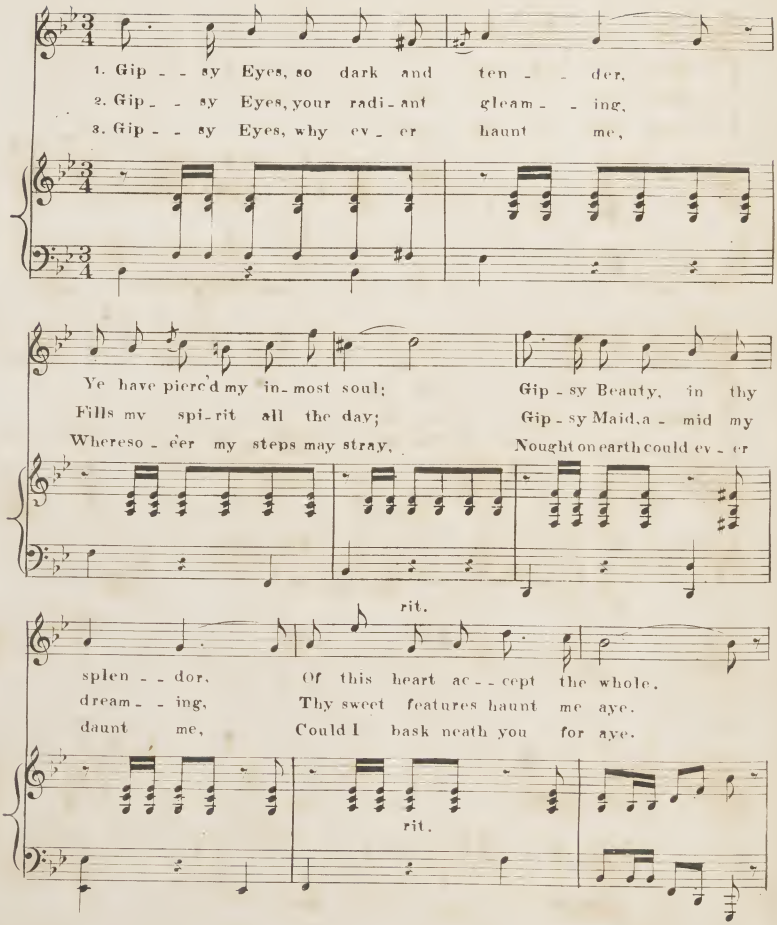
R.P. STUDLEY & CO.

GIPSY EYES.

Words by Mellen Colley.

Music by R. Frank Cardella.

Ent'd accto Act of Congress A.D.1869 by R.F. Cardella, in the Clerk's Office of the U. S. Dt: Court, for the Et: Dt: of Mo



1. Gip - - sy Eyes, so dark and ten - - der,
2. Gip - - sy Eyes, your radi - ant gleam - - ing,
3. Gip - - sy Eyes, why ev - er haunt me,
Ye have pierc'd my in - most soul; Gip - sy Beauty, in thy Fills my spi - rit all the day; Gip - sy Maid, a - mid my Whereso - ever my steps may stray, Nought on earth could ev - er rit.
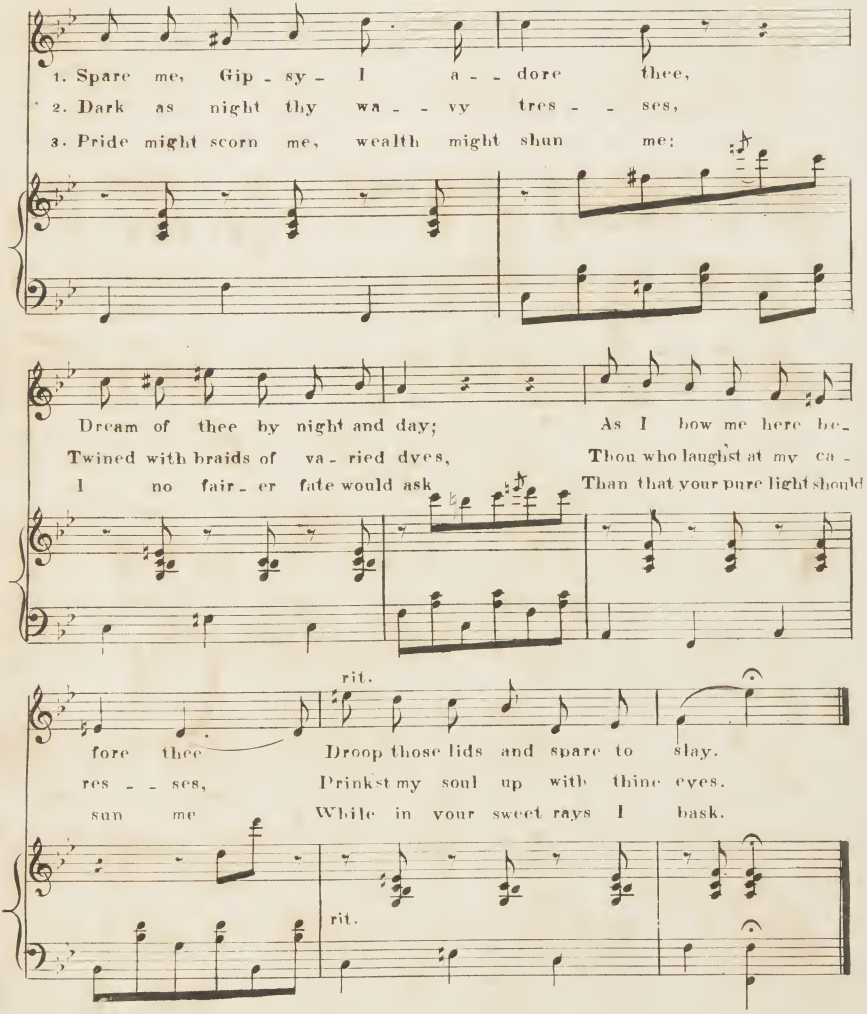
splen - - dor, Of this heart ac - - cept the whole,
dream - - ing, Thy sweet features haunt me aye.
daunt me, Could I bask neath you for aye.
rit.



1. Spare me, Gip - sy - I a - - dore thee,
2. Dark as night thy wa - - vy tres - - ses,
3. Pride might scorn me, wealth might shun me;
Dream of thee by night and day;
As I bow me here be-
Twined with braids of va - ried dyes,
Thou who laughst at my ca -
I no fair - er fate would ask
Than that your pure light should rit.
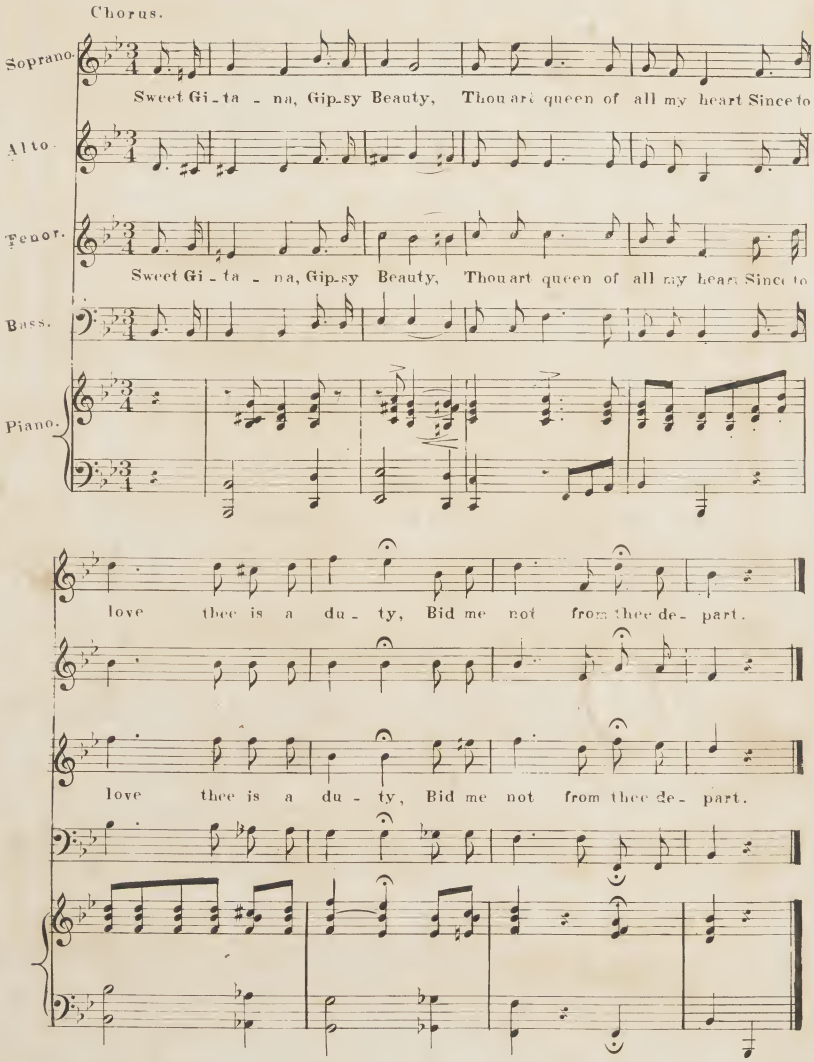
fore thee
Droop those lids and spare to slay.
res - - ses,
Prinkst my soul up with thine eyes.
sun me
While in your sweet rays I bask.
rit.



Chorus.
Soprano.
Sweet Gi - ta - na, Gip - sy Beauty, Thou art queen of all my heart Since to Alto.
Tenor.
Sweet Gi - ta - na, Gip - sy Beauty, Thou art queen of all my heart Since to Bass.
Piano.
love thee is a du - ty, Bid me not from thee de - part.
love thee is a du - ty, Bid me not from thee de - part.